Dear Church Family,

We at the Covenant Life CoG Prayer Team like to keep our church members aware of the focus the Lord has us working on. Today's focus was: Intercession for all the Covenant Life members, our president, and his cabinet. Also, the Lord led us to a conversation about building bridges of community between the members of the Body of Christ.

The Lord used Dianne to share the Word of the Lord the following. Let's build a bridge of communication and community with the Body of Christ. It may stir up lots of feelings as we enter into honest conversation and share from each person's perspective. Honest conversation allows for relationship building in a powerful way. When we can allow the Lord to be in the conversations. It allows hurts and wounds to be addressed and healed. It opens forgiveness on each side of the issue. By treating others as we want to be treated, we won't fling hurtful words at each other, but rather have respect for the other's view and feelings.

(Molly's response) Our heart cry as Believers in Jesus is to be like Him. He never backed down from a difficult situation, but rather confronted the people involved. Our difficulties all seem to come from personal defense mechanisms that seek to protect us from any confrontation rather than the desire to be able to change from "glory to glory". It is not comfortable at times, yet it helps us grow closer to each other as we open the doors of communication and let the whole view of the issues, we deal with be revealed.

Father, we want to be like Jesus. Help us to allow others to see our hearts, the good and the bad so we can all be reconciled to you in every area of our hearts. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Thank you,

Molly McKinley and Sharon Yutzy, Prayer Leaders

1 Timothy 2:1-5 The Passion Translation (TPT)

Most of all, I'm writing to encourage you to pray with gratitude to God.

Pray for all men with all forms of prayers and requests as you intercede with intense passion. And pray for every political leader and representative, so that we would be able to live tranquil, undisturbed lives, as we worship the awe-inspiring God with pure hearts. It is pleasing to our Savior-God to pray for them.

He longs for everyone to embrace his life and return to the full knowledge of the truth. For God is one, and there is one Mediator between God and the sons of men—the true man, Jesus, the Anointed One.
